

style & design

FOUR RULES

from Mark Ronson

1

Insist on good tailoring. You can buy a suit or jacket at Topman but take it to a tailor and have it altered so it fits you perfectly. You can make a lower priced suit look expensive if it fits well.

2

Pick up style tips from men's fashion magazines or celebrities you admire. It could be a colour combination, an accessory or a silhouette.

A pop-music superproducer explains his personal style

By Dave Lackie

Securing an interview with British music producer Mark Ronson last month should have been considered great dressers. I try to pick up style tips and steal little things along the way and make them my own. When Amy Winehouse and I set Echo's embellished collar.

In Rosemary's Baby, Mia Farrow went broad.
